Section of ILCA Australia Constitution covering election of committee.

16 Election of committee members and appointment of public officer

16.1 The election of office-bearers is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.

16.2 Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers of the association: (a) must be made in writing, signed by a member of the association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination), and (b) must be delivered to the committee before the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.

16.3 A person nominated as a candidate for election as an office-bearer must be a member of a District Association.

16.4 There must be a separate ballot for each office-bearer position, in the order appearing above.

16.5 If there is only one nomination for a position the person nominated is taken to be elected. Otherwise a ballot is to be held.
